

Do you wish you could run away to Vienna or New York for New Year's Eve?
May be New Orleans? Don't bother with the expense....

Gitanos' Supper Club and Tapas Bar is hosting a Masked Ball to welcome in 2008.

Dance the night away dressed in your finest glitter and bling, topped off with a fabulous feather mask. For those don't have a mask, there will be some available for sale at Thistledown Florist after the 15th of Dec.

Dance to the music of Brian Dicks and the Electric Jam Band.....there will be lots of fun for couples and singles alike. The evening includes champagne and a light supper at midnight. Limited tickets are $35.00 per person, the party starts at 9:30pm

For those who want a quiet culinary experience for New Years Eve, Gitanos' is offering an elegant 4 course menu, seating on the hour starting at 4:30pm.
The menu can be viewed on line at www.thistledownflorist.com. Regular menu will also be available for the early seatings. 8pm seating is reserved for those with tickets to the gala ball.

Call 634-5000 to book your tickets. Tickets for the gala are non refundable.
Dinner reservations will need to be confirmed with a credit card.

Menu

Gitanos' Baccalau Supreme

Baccalau is the Spanish and Portuguese word for salt cod. This is our version of a traditional holiday dish in many countries, including our own NL.

Main Course

Filet Mignon with gorgonzola sauce, fresh asparagus, wild rice and mushroom risotto.

Followed by

Butter Lettuce Salad, shaved fennel, house made raspberry wine vinaigrette

Finished with

Lemon Cheesecake with butter cookie crust and Newfoundland wild berry coulis.

$50.00 per person
